Worn Women

Women, worn and tired from overwork, need a tonic. That feeling of weakness or helplessness will not leave you of itself. You should take Wine of Cardui, that effectual remedy for the ailments and weaknesses of women. Thousands of women have tried Cardui and write enthusiastically of the great benefit it has been to them. Try it-don't experiment -use this reliable, oft-tried medicine.

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Rena Hare, of Pierce, Fla., tried Cardui and afterward wrote: "I was a sufferer from all sorts of female trouble, had pain in my side and legs, could not sleep, had shortness of breath. "I suffered for years, until my husband insisted on my trying Cardui. The first bottle gave me relief and now I am almost well. Try Cardui. "Twill help you.

Mack Burnett says he has plenty of Irish potatoes but no butter, plenty of beans but no meat, plenty of apples but no sugar, plenty of frying chickens but no lard, and plenty of beets but no vinegar. Now he wants some one to tell him how to mix these so as to make them palatable. He also remarks there are plenty of widow women but no men. Perhaps it is the grease, sugar, etc., question that makes them scarce.

Rev. W. D. Dew is a great disciple of Isaac Walton and nothing pleases him better than to pursue the finny tribe on an afternoon with rod and reel. Last Friday afternoon he landed three fine trout from the lagoon, and Saturday duplicated the performance, but there is a big 'un in there which he has not yet captured, although hooked once, which he is striving for. A friend at our elbow suggests the following yarn at the expense of Jack Martin: Martin purchased a farm here which is, liberally supplied with that pest to farmers, Johnson grass, and not used to the stuff in the Battle Creek neighborhood, mistook it for corn in hoeing his crop, and left several luxuriant stalks, while he chopped out the corn. The Johnson grass flourished under his care like a green bay tree, and Martin smelled a rat when he noticed it beginning to "tassle" and told this friend that it was the "earliest corn to tassle that he ever knew," and so the joke is on him. If it is only coming to the speculators and capitalists, where is the prosperity to the toilers who make what the capitalists and speculators have and live on. Where is any prosperity for the toilers of the South toiling for a low wage and prices of meat and bread going higher all the time. Our advice to the farmers is to hold your wheat and corn until you can get a fair price. Many of you farmers are today buying back the wheat and corn you sold for 80c and paying $8.00 a barrel in flour and buying meal at $1.00 per bushel. Nervous Break-Down

Nerve energy is the force that controls the organs of respiration, circulation, digestion and elimination. When you feel weak, nervous, irritable, sick, it is often because you lack nerve energy, and the process of rebuilding and sustaining life is interfered with. Dr. Miles' Nervine has cured thousands of such cases, and will we believe benefit if not entirely cure you. Try it.

"My nervous system gave away completely, and left me on the verge of the grave. I tried skilled physicians but got no permanent relief. I got so bad I had to give up my business. I began taking Dr. Miles Restorative Nervine. In a few days I was much better, and I continued to improve until entirely cured. I am in business again, and never miss an opportunity to recommend this remedy." MRS. W. L. BURKE, Myrtle Creek, Orogon.
